

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who bring honor and glory to themselves and to this great state through their service in the various branches which make up the United States military; and

Whereas, Harry Robert Miller of Memphis, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a 2002 graduate of Scotland County R-I High School who earned the American Farmer Degree from Future Farmers of America; and

Whereas, Harry Miller enhanced his already impressive record of achievement when he enlisted in the United States Army after his high school graduation; and

Whereas, in his honorable role as a soldier, Harry Miller was sent with his Infantry Division to Iraq and was among the first Americans to enter Baghdad in the successful effort to topple the tyrant Saddam Hussain and liberate the Iraqi people from decades of oppression; and

Whereas, after his tour of duty in Iraq was over, Harry Miller returned to the United States and underwent Special Forces training, after which time he was called back to Iraq to use his newfound skills and knowledge; and

Whereas, on November 10, 2004, Harry Miller was severely wounded as American and Iraqi forces wrested control of Fallujah from insurgents and drove the rebels from their heretofore safe houses and installations throughout the city; and

Whereas, on Friday, December 10, 2004, the city of Memphis, Missouri, will hold a well-deserved "Welcome Home" celebration for Harry Miller on the Courthouse Square in light of his personal and professional contributions to the international war on terrorism:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to salute soldier Harry Miller and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt commendation of his patriotic national service in the United States military and our sincerest best wishes for a speedy recovery from injuries received in Iraq during the war on terrorism; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Harry Robert Miller of Memphis, Missouri.
